The place for every girl

It's never too early to become a troop leader!

If your girl is entering Kindergarten this fall, she'll be able to join in the fun and adventure of Girl Scouting as a Daisy (the first program level of Girl Scouts for girls in Kindergarten and first grade)! Watch her grow and learn like never before in an all-girl, girl-led, and girl-friendly environment where she can feel free to be her full, magnificent self every single time. The sooner your girl begins to realize the power in her potential, the sooner she'll know that no matter how young or small she might think she is, there's nothing she can't accomplish.

HOW IT WORKS

New Kindergarten troops begin forming in late summer and are led by parents and caregivers like you! Troop leaders host meetings—usually once or twice a month—where girls participate in activities that teach them a broad set of skills and help them earn badges and awards. Leading a troop is a great way to bond with your girl and make a difference in the lives of other girls. Plus, you get to feel like a kid again as you explore and discover alongside your troop! Learn more about being a troop leader at Volunteers.GirlScoutsRV.org/Troop-Leader.

HOW TO JOIN

Registration for incoming Kindergarteners will open mid-summer, but you can start the joining process today! Visit GirlScoutsRV.org/Pre-K to fill out our quick form, so we can make sure your girl is all set when registration opens.
